

On Sunday, October 5, 2025 the Mebane Woman's Club will host the eighth annual: Farm to Fork fundraiser dinner at Woodside Farm, Graham, NC. Since 2016, Farm to Fork has raised over $130,000 towards our club's initiatives, which include programs that support reducing food insecurities as well as supporting education and libraries, improving and protecting the environment, celebrating arts and culture and promoting civic engagement and outreach. In 2024, the Mebane Woman's Club donated over $32,000, volunteered 2945 hours on 30 different projects. Our work impacted over 4500 local residents thanks to the proceeds from Farm to Fork. We simply could not do this without our sponsors.

A highlight of some of our work in 2024:

- 2000 flags were placed on veterans graves
- 634 meals were served
- 432 families received fresh fruit
- 200 lbs of food collected and donated to SAFE
- 75 books given away at Movies in the Park
- 50 lbs of litter removed from Holt Street Park
- 29 City of Mebane Public Works employees recognized
- 25 youth learned about safety in nature

Farm to Fork 2025

Guests enjoying dinner.

As you can see, your donation makes a difference and allows us to continue to serve our community. There are several opportunities for you to get involved.

The Farm to Fork dinner will feature locally-sourced food prepared and presented by chefs from Alamance and surrounding counties, and representing popular restaurants throughout the area. Tickets will be sold for $125 each with 130 seats available. The evening begins with a passable appetizer hour, wine and beer, and musical entertainment. Following the passable appetizer hour, we will begin a seated and plated five course meal.

Your participation in the Farm to Fork dinner will contribute to the fundraising efforts that support the many Mebane Woman's Club programs and initiatives that enrich and enhance our local community. On the following page you will find the details of each sponsorship opportunity.

Thank you for your consideration and support!
